- (a) Except in the case of non-delivery of the Purchased Equipment and an action for return of Purchase Price which may be brought by Buyer in a court of competent jurisdiction located in Alberta Canada, in the event of a dispute between the parties relating to this Agreement, the party raising the matter in dispute will notify the other parties in writing describing in sufficient detail the nature of the dispute. All parties will then appoint one or more representatives to resolve the dispute. These representatives will promptly meet and negotiate in good faith to reach a fair and equitable settlement. At the end of 60 days, if no settlement has been reached, the parties may end discussions and declare an impasse. If an impasse is declared, the parties will participate in non-binding mediation by a third-party mediator in good faith. The parties will promptly agree on the mediator and the cost of the mediator will be shared equally by the parties. The mediator will have until 90 days after the date of appointment to help resolve the dispute. The parties may (but are not required to) agree to participate in binding arbitration following the declaration of an impasse or the conclusion of mediation. Such agreement must be in writing and will specify the rules, procedures, and location to be utilized in the arbitration.
- (b) If the dispute has not been resolved within 60 days after the end of the mediation period specified in Section 7.5(a), litigation may be initiated, unless the parties agree to arbitration under Section 7.5(a). In any such litigation, all parties: (i) irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Province of Alberta, Canada, as to any claim or proceeding over which it may have jurisdiction; and (ii) agree not seek or accept any award of punitive, exemplary or multiple damages.
- (c) This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta, Canada without regard to any conflict of laws provisions that might otherwise apply. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods is expressly excluded. The foregoing provisions of this Section 7.5 notwithstanding, any party seeking to enforce its right to non-monetary injunctive relief or to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Agreement as set forth in this Agreement shall not be required to follow the procedures set forth in Section 7.5(a) and (b) above, inclusive. Seller shall in no event be liable for any consequential, incidental, indirect, special or punitive damages, including lost profits or diminution in value.
- Amendments and Waivers. Any provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived if, but only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and is signed, in the case of an amendment, by the parties, or in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective. Waiver of any one provision of this Agreement (i) shall not be deemed to and shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision hereof (whether or not similar) and (ii) shall not constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided in the written waiver. No failure or delay by a party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.
- Construction; Severability; Certain Definitions. The parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement. Any reference in this Agreement to any federal, provincial, local, or foreign statute or law shall be deemed also to refer to all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, unless the context requires otherwise. As used in this Agreement, the word "including" shall mean including without limitation and the word "affiliates" shall mean the applicable party's subsidiaries and affiliates. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any situation in any jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provisions hereof or the validity or enforceability of the offending term or provision in any other situation or in any other jurisdiction.

- 7.8 Confidentiality. Buyer will use the standard of care that it would use in protecting the security, integrity, and confidentiality of Buyer's own confidential information, but no less than reasonable care, to protect the security, integrity, and confidentiality of Seller Confidential Information. For the purposes of this Section 7.8, "Seller Confidential Information" means any information, whether written, oral or otherwise, relating to any portion of Seller's business that Buyer (including any of its agents, contractors, or representatives) may acquire under or in the course of its performance of this Agreement, including its presence in Seller's office, plant, warehouse or facilities (as applicable), including any information relating to Seller or any of its affiliates, suppliers, customers, employees, personnel, or contractors. Buyer's obligations under this Section 7.8 will not, however, apply to: (a) information that: (i) is or becomes publicly available through no breach of any agreement between Buyer and Seller or any of its affiliates; (ii) is approved by Seller for release in writing; (iii) is lawfully obtained by Buyer from a third party without a duty of confidentiality; (iv) was already known to Buyer prior to its disclosure to Buyer; or (v) is required to be disclosed by a valid court order (provided that Buyer has notified Seller in writing of the court order and fully cooperated with Seller in seeking, at Seller's sole discretion, confidential treatment for the disclosures); (b) the Equipment transferred to Buyer under this Agreement; or (c) any business contact information of Seller or its employees, personnel, or contractors (provided that Buyer may only use such business contact information for business contact purposes related to the transfer of the Equipment under this Agreement).

If requested by Seller, Buyer will permit Seller (including its authorized representatives) to examine all pertinent documents, data, and other information relating to the Equipment and Buyer's obligations under this Agreement, including in regard to any payment made to Seller or any claim made by Buyer. Any such examination will be conducted during normal business hours and upon advance written notice to Buyer. If requested by Seller, Buyer will use its best efforts to permit Seller to obtain from Buyer's third party agents, representatives, and contractors involved in Buyer's performance of this Agreement the information, and permission to conduct the reviews, specified in this Section 7.9, regardless of any other right Seller may have to that information or facilities. Buyer will keep all relevant documents, data, and other written information for at least two years following the later of the last delivery of Equipment, or the date of final payment by Buyer to Seller, under this Agreement and Seller may make copies of these materials.
- 7.10 Excusable Delay. No party shall be liable for a failure perform under this Agreement that arises from causes or events beyond its reasonable control that are not attributable to its fault or negligence, including but not limited to labor disputes, health related events, manufacturing processes and technical difficulties. The party claiming the excusable delay shall give notice to the other party in writing as soon as possible after the occurrence and termination of the condition.
- 7.11 Advertising. Buyer shall not make any reference to Seller or any of its affiliates, or use Seller's or any of its affiliate's trademarks or logos, in any advertising or publicity materials.
- 7.12 No Purchase Commitment for Goods/Services from Buyer. This Agreement does not create any obligation of any person or entity to purchase any goods or services from Buyer.
